The Dorinda is an open forum of the wandering tribe of Caer Galen. It never hallucinates of being an official SCA publication, and therefore doesn't dictate SCA policy. (But we have an oasis.) In addition, any articles/notices/whatever are those of an individual if signed, or considered a joke if not. Therefore the tribe of Caer Galen rarely subscribes to any of the points of view in the aforementioned articles.

The third al-Barron Arts and Sciences competition will soon be here. Get your entries ready for the final round of the competitions on Saturday, January 23, 1988.

The event will be held at the Oddfellow's Hall, 2617 Texas NE, Albuquerque, NM. Registration opens at 9am and closes at noon. Judging will begin shortly thereafter. Please bring your documentation. Greetings unto the Shire of Caer Galen from Mariko, Chief Cook at Midwinter Feast!

Thank you all for coming and trying so many different dishes - the cooks were pleased to see so few leftovers. We are very happy you enjoyed your feast.

I would like to thank my fellow cooks, who spent all day with me in as tiny kitchen preparing food - Mistress Dimelza, Lord Sylvanus and Lady Ariel, (who arrived early and was immediately drafted into the kitchen. Also, Lord Petheram kindly loaned his rice steamer; without which the rice would not have been as plentiful or as good. The ladies responsible for the outstanding decorations also came early and worked very hard - Elizabeth O'Byrne and Gisella..

Finally, the heartfelt thanks of the cooks to the cleanup crew who were "volunteered" from the feast hall and promised they would be plied with sake if they cleanup the kitchen: Lord Roderick, Lord Irel and Farken. Ladies, next time you see any of these gentlemen, offer them a sip from your goblet in thanks.

Lastly, a rousing applause for the autocrat Mistress Morrigan di Winter, who did it all on a moments notice.

Actually, it is we who owe her great debt. Let us not forget to thank her (each of us) as we see her.
